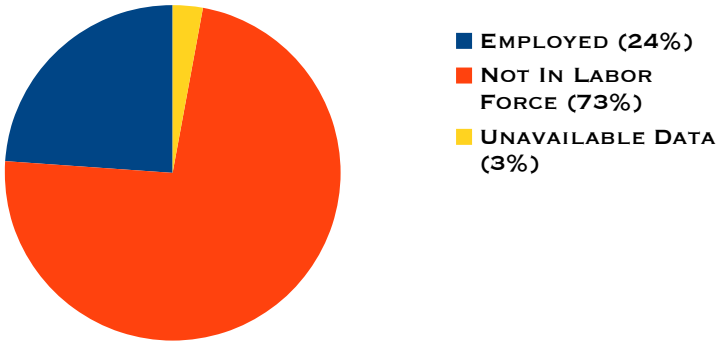
Facts & Statistics

65% of disabled people over the age 16 make less than $35,000 a year. -American Community Survey 2017, 5-year estimates

The average cost of healthcare for a disabled person per year is over $13,450. - 2014 Medical Expenditure Panel Survey

Employment Status 2017

-American Community Survey 2017, 1 year estimate



It takes a disabled person 60% longer to find a job than a non-disabled person. - Opinium Survey 2017

Only 51% of disabled workers surveys result in an interview, compared to 69% for non-disabled workers. - Opinium Survey 2017

In 2016, disabled adults with a college education had an employment rate of 59%, ten points lower than all adults with a high school diploma or less (69%) and 27 percentage points lower than all adults with a college degree (86%). - Brookings University 2016

In 2018, over 700 babies in the state of Florida were aborted due to "severe fetal abnormalities".
- Florida Agency for Healthcare Administration 2018

The RollExit Movement stands on these four platforms:
1. RollExit is against abortion of any kind.
2. RollExit is against the implementation of socialized medicine.
3. RollExit is against the bias and bigotry displayed towards the disabled community by the Democrats, media, and hollywood.
4. RollExit is for economic and entrepreneurship opportunities to bring disabled out of poverty.